Chapter 1 by Story Wars

You may be anywhere by now. You read this far from me and you do not remember. You must not. Even now the words I write will not be read till I am gone. But you will live on. They will make sure of that. It is my punishment for what I have done. To know that you will forever live, and never remember. I will be forever forgotten. But there will always be something. A feeling of loss you must take with you always. When they find this it will be too late, you will have already read it, as you do now. It will mean nothing to you, and when you are finished you will put this aside like it doesn't matter.

But before I am gone forever, I must tell you goodbye. I must tell you, with everything I am and all I wanted to be.

I.
LOVE.
YOU.

I can finally leave, just knowing you have read this and known, that I. Me. Love you.
